

Map from Port Adelaide Information Centre Dolphin Trail brochure

Although not marked as part of the trail, several other locations are also popular land-based dolphin viewing spots. The following location have challenging access and may require a 4WD at certain times of the year: Mutton Cove.